2020 AP Exam Scores

- As usual, 2020 AP Exams will be scored by AP readers, who are college professors and experienced educators in each exam subject. Scores will be reported on the usual 1–5 scale.
- To accommodate the extended scoring schedule, which requires all exams to be scored online in readers' homes, AP scores will be released to AP students approximately one week later than usual, beginning about July 15.

Remember to use your free score send!

Sign into My AP no later than June 20 to indicate which college or university should get your scores. After June 20, there's a $15 fee for each score report sent ($25 per report for rush processing).

Credit and Placement

“UC recognizes the effort that students have already applied in these challenging courses and will award UC credit for 2020 AP Exams completed with scores of 3, 4, or 5, consistent with previous years.”

—The University of California System

“Purdue will continue to accept AP credit as usual.”

—Purdue University

“University of Connecticut fully supports the changes to the AP Exam made by College Board. We understand students need flexibility at this time of crisis and are committed to honoring the AP credit they earn.”

—University of Connecticut

“Despite significant changes surrounding the administration of AP Exams, Vanderbilt has decided that our current policies for AP credit will remain in effect for the class entering in fall 2020.”

—Vanderbilt University

A few examples of the consistent support we've heard from colleges and universities nationwide.

Credit and Placement

“Undergraduate Admissions will accept scores from any modified testing and credit policies that College Board puts in place.”

—Virginia Tech

“Brandeis is committed to ensuring that students receive credit for the rigorous coursework they completed this year. Brandeis will accept appropriate AP scores received on the shortened at-home administration of the AP Exam offered in Spring 2020 for credit transfer.”

—Brandeis University

“At Wheaton College, we will continue to recognize the hard work and commitment our students displayed by challenging themselves in rigorous academic work and will continue to accept AP credit(s) as outlined by College Board.”

—Wheaton College, Massachusetts

“We recognize all the work that goes into taking an AP course and/or studying for the exam. Rest assured that a change in testing format does not change how UW awards credit for AP Exams.”

—University of Washington

A few examples of the consistent support we've heard from colleges and universities nationwide.

Credit and Placement

“Marquette will award credit for achievement on AP Exams.”

— Marquette University

“WMU will not penalize students who must take online AP Exams this spring and will continue to award credit as we always have.”

—Western Michigan University

“Boston College will continue to acknowledge our incoming students’ aptitude and hard work in rigorous academic coursework by maintaining our Advanced Placement policy which allows students to use qualifying scores to fulfill requirements in the University Core Curriculum.”

—Boston College

“We understand that this is stressful when students have worked so hard taking these rigorous classes. We have kept our transfer credit policy in place, and we will honor the AP scores for all exams taken in spring 2020.”

—George Washington University

A few examples of the consistent support we've heard from colleges and universities nationwide.

During this challenging time, the AP Program wants every interested AP student to have the opportunity to earn the college credit they've been working toward all year.

Stay safe and healthy.

Check Your Tech: Browser

If you cannot access the Exam Demo available from May 4 at cb.org/ap2020, you won't be able to take the real test. Follow these steps to change your browser.

- The AP Exam will only open in the latest versions of Chrome (preferred), Firefox, Safari, or Edge.
  - Important: 2020 AP Exams won't work in Internet Explorer.
  - If you need to install Chrome (which is free), do a google search for "Get latest Chrome browser," and follow the instructions.
- Make sure Chrome (or Firefox, Safari, or Edge) is your default browser:
  - Send an email to yourself with a link to a website you like. Click the link and see which type of browser opens. If it's Internet Explorer, you must change your default browser or you won't be able to test.
  - If you need to change your default browser to Chrome, do a google search for "Set default browser for [your device and operating system, if known]."
- Disable any browser plug-ins or extensions, such as Grammarly, to ensure you can access the AP 2020 Exam. However, keep plug-ins you need for accessibility, e.g., ChromeVox.
  - Do a google search: "How to disable browser extensions"

Your exam question(s) are displayed in a browser. Using a supported browser ensures that you'll be able to test successfully.
