

Verifying your Student Account & Email Address

To ensure that you receive important Emails and information about the upcoming AP exam, make sure that you have verified your Email address within your College Board Account Profile. Emails will be coming from collegeboard@e.collegeboard.org, so make sure they are on your approved sender list.

You may access your profile by visiting: <https://myap.collegeboard.org/login> or collegeboard.org

1. Log into your account & Click on your Name

By going to the above webpages, use the username and password that you use to log into the AP Classroom resources and website. If you forgot your username or password, you can click on the link for a reminder. Once you've logged in, you should see your name next to the yellow icon at the top of the page. Click on your name.

For more information, contact us at apstudents@info.collegeboard.org or call 866-315-6068

2. Click on “Account Settings”

When you click on your name, a menu will appear as shown below. Click on “Account Settings” in order to check or update your contact information.

3. Review Information & Update as Necessary

Verify your information and update your primary Email address to one that you use. This will be the Email address where you'll receive your exam information prior to the exam. When you're done updating your information, scroll down to the bottom of the page and click Update. You can also choose to add your cell phone information to receive tests reminders for important updates.

A screenshot of the account settings form. It includes fields for "Date of birth:" (with "March" selected), "Email address:" (with "@yahoo.com" entered), and "Confirm email address:" (with "@yahoo.com" entered). A tooltip for "Email address:" says: "Make sure you use an email address that you'll have access to for as long as you'll need your College Board account (e.g., beyond high school).". Below these is the "Cell Phone:" section with three input fields containing "555", "555", and "5555". A checkbox is checked, and the text below it says: "Get text messages from the College Board. We'll send you reminders for test dates, deadlines, and scores, and direct you to free college planning resources. We may text you with invites to surveys or to tell you about new offerings. Standard messaging and data rates may apply. To stop receiving SMS messages from the College Board, text STOP to 70801."

4. Verify your Update

Now that you've updated your account Email address, you can verify the change by entering AP Classroom from the My AP menu as shown below. Then click on My AP Profile.

Be sure to check your “junk” folder to be sure that you aren’t missing important emails.
